

Clothing Donation Options

SuayLA

Suay takes donations and recycles textiles by creating products from post consumer waste and dead stock. Their services also include clothing repairs and community dye baths. Store and donation center are located at 2915 Knox Ave. Unit 105, and are open from 10 am to 5 pm.

Recycled Resources for Homeless

Recycled Resources works to provide basic needs and necessities to all people experiencing homelessness in NELA. Donations of all kinds are accepted, with a focus on underwear, socks, sweatshirts of all sizes. Drop off center located in Highland Park at 5619 Monte Vista Street. Collections are Saturday mornings 9:00 am to 11:30 am.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Society of St. Vincent de Paul will pick up clothing, furniture, appliances and other household items for free. Donations collected are sold to benefit their homeless shelter on Skid Row. Call (800) 974-3571 to schedule a pickup.

Goodwill

Goodwill is a global nonprofit which can be found throughout the Los Angeles area. The nearest locations are in Lincoln Heights (310 N San Fernando Road), Atwater Village (3150 N San Fernando Road), Eagle Rock (1600 E Colorado Street) and Los Feliz (4575 Hollywood Blvd).

Zappos for Good

Online retailer Zappos has partnered with multiple recycling programs in an effort to reuse and reduce textile waste; two notable programs are Soles 4 Souls and Blue Jeans Go Green. Zappos offers prepaid postage for donations of up to 50 pounds. Visit <https://www.zappos.com/about/zappos-for-good> to register your donation and print postage.

Or contact a local thrift store about their donation collections! Some of our favorites are Out of the Closet, American Vintage and Crossroads Trading Co.